The Champions of Fenris have access to some absolutely stellar Relics. However, again, it looks like the Space Wolf codex allows only 1 Relic per character while the supplement uses language that indicates that you can take more than one per character. It must be an oversight on GW's part to have so much inconsistency between books.

Rune Bards-The Maws of Fenris Rune Bards are same as other Codex-compliant Chapters' Librarians, carrying their unique name as a recognition to their Fenrisian, more shamanistic origins. They are paykers who survive Chapter's rigorous screening and training to bend the powers of the Warp to their will for the benefit of their fellow Battle-Brothers and in service to the Emperor of Mankind.

Meaning did I buy a codex that was not very good and could have saved money just getting Champions of Fenris, then leeching off my buddies for the normal stats? Thankfully I don't think so. Yes, the Champions of Fenris does make our units better in CC overall, even in shooting. The relics even entices one to overlook the normal book entirely.
