In Stella Newman's books they zip off the page and the very sparky dialogue brings to mind David Nichols stuff. Actually the author says that this book was influenced by the brilliant Nora Ephron's book Heartburn - and whilst Pear-Shaped is nowhere near as good as that brilliant novel - you can see the similarities.

Did you love Stella Newman's Pear Shaped and Leftovers? In A Pear Shaped Christmas, her characters return to delight fans and newcomers alike with a snortingly hilarious tale of how one high profile Christmas ad for a supermarket chain can go so horribly wrong in the course of a year. A treat if you can't get enough of Jill Mansell, Jenny Colgan and
